Luke 11:1-13

Teach us to pray. (Luke 11:1)

We human beings are big on “how to,” aren’t we? Search on the Internet, and you will soon learn how to tie a tie, boil an egg, or even train your dragon. The disciples were no different. They had heard him praise Mary for sitting quietly at his feet and listening to his teaching. And they wanted to know how to do that too.

So Jesus gave them what we call the “Our Father.” Though it looks like a five-step instruction, it is so much more. This prayer reveals much about who Jesus is because it gives us a glimpse into his own prayer life. It also shows who we are and God’s vision of how we should live. And it explains how Jesus wants us to relate to his Father—with the same mind and heart that he had as he walked the earth.

Who is your Father? He is perfect, holy, and worthy of adoration. But Jesus doesn’t tell you to say, “Holy Father.” Just “Father.” He makes it clear that your Father is not far away, untouchable, enthroned beyond your reach. He is close to you, eager to breathe his life into you. He hears your voice. He listens when you call and promises to answer. He gives you daily bread generously—all that you need for life and holiness.

The Father loves you. Always and without exception. He sees your worst sins, and still he wants to hold you close. He offers forgiveness lavishly, reconciliation unreservedly, intimacy wholeheartedly. He gives you all the tools and grace you need to become as merciful as he is. And he protects you from the evil one so that you can spread that mercy far and wide.

Jesus gave the disciples so much more than a list of tips for effective prayer. He assured them that they could approach God confidently, knowing he will always listen, always forgive, always provide and protect. And he, who is holy, will do no less for you.

“Father, I want to know you. Help me to grow closer to you and more confident in your love.”

PICNIC

Our Parish Picnic is this Sunday July 28th from 4-8 pm at Paige's Crossing. We want everyone to come, even if you missed registration! Please bring a dish to share. The parish is providing meat and drinks.

MISSION APPEAL

Next weekend, August 3rd, we will welcome Fr. Andrew Mukosa, OFM Conv. With the Conventual Franciscan Friars of the Province of Our Lady of Consolation for a mission appeal.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

Thank you all for your hard work and dedication so that Vacation Bible School could be a success. Whether you gave an offering to the 2nd collection, worked to help plan VBS, your time to volunteer (including our many youth that came and helped with smiles on their faces and Jesus in their hearts), your time to pray each day for the children, or your time to continue the outreach of the children and families that were impacted through VBS 2019, We want to Thank you! VBS reaches many children and families each summer and through you we can continue that reach throughout the whole year. It is good to see our church spreading the Gospel in such a caring and loving way.
