St. Paul of the Cross Lending Library

The Lending Library is now open for anyone who is interested in a good read. It is divided into three different sections. The top two shelves feature books that are geared towards adults, the middle shelf has some great books for teens and young adults, and the bottom two shelves are for the younger children. Feel free to take a book off the shelf and keep it as long as you need to then bring it back and select another one. Please DO NOT put any new reading material on the shelves. New books may be put in a bag and dropped off by the Rel. Ed. office. Thank you and happy reading!

SUNDAY, June 27 2 Corinthians 8:7,9,13-15

He became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. (2 Corinthians 8:9)

If you've ever pondered what heaven might be like, you may have thought of a summer day: the bloom of the flowers, the warmth of the sun, God's creation bursting with life. Who would ever want to leave such a beautiful place? And yet this is what Jesus did when he left heaven to come and save us.

St. Paul explains why Jesus made such a sacrifice: "So that by his poverty you might become rich" (2 Corinthians 8:9). Jesus took on the "poverty" of our human limitations so that we could inherit the richness of eternal life. He entered so fully into our poverty, in fact, that he endured death—all so that we could live forever.

Now, because of Jesus' sacrifice, you can receive his riches every single day. But how? Today's Gospel shows us the way. Both Jairus and the hemorrhaging woman knew they were in desperate circumstances and that they needed the healing that only Jesus could provide. Similarly, when we acknowledge our spiritual poverty, we open our hearts to receive Jesus' riches.

So confess your weaknesses and your sins to the Lord. Acknowledge the temptations that always seem to trip you up. Tell Jesus that you need him.

Yet Jairus and the hemorrhaging woman didn't just admit their poverty. They also believed in the riches of Jesus' love. Their faith opened a way for his divine power to flow. Likewise, when you confess your neediness to the Lord, you can be confident that he will fill you—not with material wealth, but with the riches of his presence, his forgiveness, and his wisdom.

Jesus' poverty has won you untold riches—riches that are available to you in a special way in Holy Communion. So come to him in poverty and humility and faith. Come and let him fill you.

"Lord, thank you for becoming poor to make me rich! Thank you, for your love!"
